

THE PLANNER

Our guide to the week

SPECTRUMPLANNER@FAIRFAXMEDIA.COM.AU

easter

WATSONS BAY

As well as Easter egg hunts hosted by the Easter Bunny, there will be DJs and hot cross bun ice-cream sandwiches on offer. Bring swimmers and a snorkel for Sunday's aqua egg hunt on Watsons Bay beach.

Saturday, Sunday and Monday, Watsons Bay Hotel, corner of Military Road and Marine Parade, Watsons Bay, free, 9337 5444, watsonsbayhotel.com.au

EGG HUNT

The Easter Bunny hops on down for the Great ABG Egg Hunt. Kids follow a trail around the garden, completing challenges along the way. Plenty of Easter eggs are up for grabs, and the Easter bunny will pose for family photos. Saturday and Sunday, 9am-3.30pm, The Australian Botanic Garden, Narellan Rd, Mount Annan, $17.70, 4634 7900, mount.annan@rbgsyd.com.au

PARADE AND FAMILY DAY

A joyous Christian occasion, this vibrant parade features bands, stilt walkers, family entertainment, food trucks and cultural performances in Hyde Park. This free celebration has been delighting Sydney families for more than 20 years. Monday, 10am-2pm, Hyde Park, Elizabeth Street, city, free, sydneyeasterparade.com.au

BLUES AND BREWS

Murray's Chocolate Easter Egg and Hot Cross Bun Beer varieties are a must-try while enjoying Danny and Jake and the Lamplighters Big Band. Kids' activities on Sunday. Saturday, Sunday, Monday, 10am-6pm, Murray's Brewery and Port Stephens Winery, 3443 Nelson Bay Road, Port Stephens, free entry, 4982 6411, murraysbrewingco.com.au

visual art

CANBERRA CONNECTION

Proving that there's more to Canberra than Parliament House, artist Alexander Boynes curates Straight Outta Canberra. A cutting-edge collection of art (detail, pictured) from the capital, the show features ambitious emerging artists including Tom Buckland, Cat Mueller, Sanne Koelemij and Rebecca Selleck. Until April 14, May Space, 409b George Street, Waterloo, free, 9318 1122, mayspace.com.au

