

THE PLANNER

Our guide to the week

SPECTRUMPLANNER@FAIRFAXMEDIA.COM.AU

free

YOGA

In its fourth year, the International Day of Yoga aims to reduce stress through yoga, breathing, meditation and music in a bid to ultimately reduce violence. The day will feature yoga sessions, performances and market stalls. Saturday, 11am-1.30pm, Martin Place, city, artofliving.org

SUITCASE RUMMAGE

The traditional market stall has been replaced with open suitcases for the Suitcase Rummage. Shoppers can hunt through the mini-market for artwork, clothing, jewellery and cards then haggle for a sale price. Market-goers are encouraged to bring their own shopping bags. Sunday, 11am-4pm, The Goods Line, Haymarket, Ultimo, suitcaserummage.com.au

DIFFERENT WEDDINGS

Bringing together an array of vendors, the Different

Weddings Showcase displays wedding themes to inspire those planning for their big day. Guests can gather creative ideas and resources to create a wedding that's entirely their own. Sunday, 10am, Luna Park, 1 Olympic Drive, Milsons Point, 9922 6644, differentweddings.com.au

MUGGED!

Emerging, mid-career and established artists have created diverse interpretations of the faithful old mug as part of seasonal exhibition MUGGED! (pictured). In its final day, exhibition-goers who purchase a piece of the pottery will receive a complementary hot chocolate. Saturday, 10am-5pm, 409b George Street, Waterloo, 9318 1122, mayspace.com.au

coming up

JANE FONDA

Actor and activist Jane Fonda (pictured) will share personal stories in An Evening with Jane Fonda. Fonda will tell of her childhood as Hollywood royalty, her acting career and why she is driven to advocate for particular causes. August 27, Concert Hall, Sydney Opera House, $99-$159, 9250 7250, sydneyoperahouse.com

CATHERINE TATE

Joined by Niky Wardley, Catherine Tate will embody characters from her BBC series The Catherine Tate